- A. The residents of the southern United States are particularly warm to visitors, ready to welcome them to their homes and to the South in general. Food places an important role in the traditions of southern hospitality. A cake or other delicacy is often brought to the door of a new neighbor as a means of introduction. When a serious illness occurs, neighbors, friends, and church members generally bring food to that family as a form of support and encouragement.
- B. Destination spas exist for those who only can take a short term trip, but still want to develop healthy habits. Guests reside and participate in the program at a destination spa instead of just visiting it for a treatment or pure vacation. Typically over a seven-day stay, such facilities provide a program that includes spa services, physical fitness activities, wellness education, healthy cuisine and special interest programming.
- C. When people travel, stay in a hotel, eat out, or go to the movies, they rarely think that they are experiencing many-sided, vast and very diverse hospitality industry. The tourism industry is very challenging for those who work there, as they should be able to meet a wide variety of needs and to be flexible enough to anticipate them. The right person to help us feel at home likes working with the public, and enjoys solving puzzles.
- D. Ten years ago, with the help of friends and family, VeitKühne founded Hospitality Club as a general-purpose Internet-based hospitality exchange organization. Now, it is one of the largest hospitality networks with members in 226 countries. This is a completely free organization, which involves no money. The core activity is the exchange of accommodation, when hosts offer their guests the possibility to stay free at their homes.
- E. To the ancient Greeks and Romans, hospitality was a divine right. The host was expected to make sure the needs of his guests were seen to. In the contemporary West, hospitality is rarely associated with generously provided care and kindness to whoever is in need or strangers. Now it is only a service that includes hotels, casinos, and resorts, which offer comfort and guidance to strangers, but only as part of a business relationship.

- F. A bed and breakfast is a type of overnight accommodation with breakfast offered in someone's private home. This type of service was established in Europe many years ago and its roots lie a long way back in history when monasteries provided bed and breakfasts for travelers. But the term appeared in the UK only after World War II, when numerous foreigners needed a place to stay and local people opened their homes and started serving breakfast to those overnight guests.
- G. Hostels are nothing more than budget oriented, sociable accommodation where guests can rent a bed, and share a bathroom, lounge and sometimes a kitchen. But somehow there are misconceptions that a hostel is a kind of homeless shelter, a dangerous place where young people can face potential threat. This does not reflect the high quality and level of professionalism in many modern hostels.

These are just the (7).....of people who feel their pets need an entertaining dog video when they are at (8).....

So what is Cool for Dogs like? Basically it consists (9)..... a series of short clips: rocky coastlines, sunsets, lots of dogs running and things (10)..... that. It is not what Hollywood would call a big (11)..... and moreover it lacks something – a plot. But dogs (12)..... Dr Neville, are keen TV-watchers and they like nature programmes. (13)..... we tested it on Laila, our dog. The result? It took several dog biscuits to get nine-month-old Laila to sit in (14)..... of the television. Not a huge success, but who's to say it won't (15).....? It has, after all, been passed as suitable viewing for pets of any age.

4. Writing

You have received a letter from your English pen-friend Charlotte who writes:

... Last week I had a task to write an essay «An Ideal School as I See It». Surely the place where I study is one of the best in the city, but I want to change some things. For example, I think it would be nice for the students to choose the subjects they want to study.

What is an «ideal school» for you? How should the classrooms be equipped? Do you think it is necessary to have the school rules? Why?

Write a letter to Charlotte and answer her questions.
Write 100—120 words. Remember the rules of letter writing.

5. Speaking

Imagine that this is a photo from you album. Present it to your friend. You will have to start speaking in 1.5 minutes and will speak for not more than 2 minutes (12—15 sentences). In your talk remember to speak about:

- when you took the photo
- what/who is in the photo
- what is happening
- why you took the photo
- why you decided to show the picture to your friend

Dear Charlotte,

155.

Thanks for your letter! I'm glad to hear that you've passed your final test in Maths. I'm very glad for you.

I'm sorry I haven't written for such a long time. I've been busy with my new project. I created a website.

Every pupil wants to study in that school. As former I like teachers in my school, but I'd like to change some rules and marking system. Also I'd like to change school uniform and quantity of homework.

Unfortunately, I need to come back to my project. I hope my answer was interesting

Hope to hear from you soon.

Take care,

Alina

Dear Charlotte,
Thanks for your letter. In your letter you asked me about my ideal school. I think every-one would like break to be longer. Then we wouldn't be here more rest + between lessons. The lessons are interactive. Equipment in the school should be high tech. New computers, scanners, printers. A nice chemical laboratory, a historical museum, and big library. I would like to have a large gymnasium with many different equipment such as climbing wall for example. Swimming pool. An ideal school is a place that has everything for students.

- A. The residents of the southern United States are particularly warm to visitors, ready to welcome them to their homes and to the South in general. Food places an important role in the traditions of southern hospitality. A cake or other delicacy is often brought to the door of a new neighbor as a means of introduction. When a serious illness occurs, neighbors, friends, and church members generally bring food to that family as a form of support and encouragement.
- B. Destination spas exist for those who only can take a short term trip, but still want to develop healthy habits. Guests reside and participate in the program at a destination spa instead of just visiting it for a treatment or pure vacation. Typically over a seven-day stay, such facilities provide a program that includes spa services, physical fitness activities, wellness education, healthy cuisine and special interest programming.
- C. When people travel, stay in a hotel, eat out, or go to the movies, they rarely think that they are experiencing many-sided, vast and very diverse hospitality industry. The tourism industry is very challenging for those who work there, as they should be able to meet a wide variety of needs and to be flexible enough to anticipate them. The right person to help us feel at home likes working with the public, and enjoys solving puzzles.
- D. Ten years ago, with the help of friends and family, VeitKühne founded Hospitality Club as a general-purpose Internet-based hospitality exchange organization. Now, it is one of the largest hospitality networks with members in 226 countries. This is a completely free organization, which involves no money. The core activity is the exchange of accommodation, when hosts offer their guests the possibility to stay free at their homes.

provided care and kindness to whoever is in need or strangers. Now it is only a service that includes hotels, casinos, and resorts, which offer comfort and guidance to strangers, but only as part of a business relationship.

- F. A bed and breakfast is a type of overnight accommodation with breakfast offered in someone's private home. This type of service was established in Europe many years ago and its roots lie a long way back in history when monasteries provided bed and breakfasts for travelers. But the term appeared in the UK only after World War II, when numerous foreigners needed a place to stay and local people opened their homes and started serving breakfast to those overnight guests.
- G. Hostels are nothing more than budget oriented, sociable accommodation where guests can rent a bed, and share a bathroom, lounge and sometimes a kitchen. But somehow there are misconceptions that a hostel is a kind of homeless shelter, a dangerous place where young people can face potential threat. This does not reflect the high quality and level of professionalism in many modern hostels.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR DOGS

What do dogs really like to watch on television? Peter Neville, who studies animal behaviour, thinks he knows and as a (1)..... he has made a video called Cool for Dogs. It is not quite Baywatch, but it is (2)..... to keep pets amused when you leave them at home.

Many owners think their four-legged companion is highly intelligent and (3).....needs constant mental stimulation. A recent (4).....of Britain's dog owners found that over a third of them were convinced that their pet was as (5)..... as a nine-year-old child. There are even owners who think some dogs are brighter than the average university student (6)..... may say more about our education problems than about dogs. These are just the (7).....of people who feel their pets need an entertaining dog video when they are at (8).....

So what is Cool for Dogs like? Basically it consists (9)..... a series of short clips: rocky coastlines, sunsets, lots of dogs running and things (10)..... that. It is not what Hollywood would call a big (11)..... and moreover it lacks something – a plot. But dogs (12)..... Dr Neville, are keen TV-watchers and they like nature programmes. (13)..... we tested it on Laila, our dog. The result? It took several dog biscuits to get nine-month-old Laila to sit in (14)..... of the television. Not a huge success, but who's to say it won't (15).....? It has, after all, been passed as suitable viewing for pets of any age.

4. Writing

You have received a letter from your English pen-friend Charlotte who writes:

... Last week I had a task to write an essay «An Ideal School as I See It». Surely the place where I study is one of the best in the city, but I want to change some things. For example, I think it would be nice for the students to choose the subjects they want to study.

What is an «ideal school» for you? How should the classrooms be equipped? Do you think it is necessary to have the school rules? Why?

Write a letter to Charlotte and answer her questions.

Write 100—120 words. Remember the rules of letter writing.

5. Speaking

Imagine that this is a photo from you album. Present it to your friend. You will have to start speaking in 1.5 minutes and will speak for not more than 2 minutes (12—15 sentences). In your talk remember to speak about:

- when you took the photo
- what/who is in the photo
- what is happening
- why you took the photo
- why you decided to show the picture to your friend

4. Hi, Charlotte!
Thank you for your letter. I hope you will continue to write to me. It's very interesting!
I will be waiting. Now it's my turn to answer your questions.
The "ideal school" for me is a place where different subjects are taught in an interesting way, where there a lot of interesting people. The lessons should be informative and exciting. Classrooms should be equipped with new technological schoolboards, comfortable desks and chairs, textbooks. Students can walk in a beautiful uniforms.
School rules ~~don't~~ should not be a strong <sup>next</sup> letter. Bye, Charlotte!

"ALICE GROWS SMALL"

Again Alice looked about. She was in a very, very large room now. There were many doors in it. Alice tried to open them, but they were all locked<sup>1</sup> and she had no keys to them.

"How shall I get out of here?" she thought.

Suddenly she noticed a small table which had only three legs. There was a little gold key on it. She took the key and tried to open each door again. But the key was too large for some of the doors and too small for the others. Then she saw another little door. She tried to open it with the little gold key. This time<sup>2</sup> the door opened and Alice saw a beautiful garden. A lot of bright flowers grew there. Alice wanted to get into the garden through the open door, but the door was so small that she could not even get head through it.

"I am so sorry I can't shut up like a telescope<sup>3</sup>," she thought.

Alice waited by the little door for some time and then went back to the table. She hoped to find another key or a book of rules which could teach her how to shut up like a telescope.

This time she found a little bottle on the table. She took the bottle and saw the words "DRINK ME" on it.

Alice drank a little. It was nice. She drank some more<sup>4</sup>. Then she drank it all.

"How funny!" she said. "I think I am shutting up like a telescope."

She was growing smaller and smaller. Very soon she was very, very small, and she thought: "Now I can get to that beautiful garden through the little door."

Dear friend,

My name is Tom. I am eleven years old. I live in London with my mother and father. My mother works at school, she is a teacher and my father is a driver. I have no sisters and brothers. I go to school. I am in the fifth grade. My favourite subject is Maths. I like to play computer games very much.

What is your name? How old are you? Where are you from? Have you got any brothers or sisters? Do you go to school?

Write soon.

Tom.

Hi Tom!

My name is Sofia. Your name funny, lol. I'm too eleven years old. Stavrupal this is my city. I hasn't got a brother and sister. But i have cat! He's a cutie.

~~and my family~~ And i go a school everyday. I like<sup>to</sup> sleep and eat, no play.

What's your favorite food? Have you got a friend?
